Guru Transit / (Guru Peyarchi) Predictions

According to the "Vakkiya Panchang"

Planet Guru Bhagvan (Guru) is going to transit on 11-05-2025, Sunday from Rishaba Rashi (Taurus) to Mithuna Rashi (Gemini) at 01:19 P.M.

According to the Drik Panchang, the Guru

Peyarchi (Guru Transit) will occur on Wednesday, the 14th of May 2025, 10:36 PM at night. At this time, Guru will transit from the Taurus zodiac sign (Rishaba Rasi) to the Gemini zodiac sign (Mithuna Rasi).

Guru Bhagavan (Lord Guru) will remain in the Gemini zodiac sign until 02/06/2026.

In Indian astrology, Guru, is considered as the offspring of Angirasa Maharishi, one of the seven revered sages (Saptarishis). This planet is regarded as a manifestation of the divine, and among the Navagrahas (nine planets), it is esteemed as a benefic celestial body embodying purity (Satvika guna) and divine qualities. Consequently, it is often referred to as "Deva Guru", the preceptor of the gods, and is considered an entirely auspicious planet.

Guru is also known by other names such as "Brihaspati" and is the significator (Karaka) of wealth (Dhana). There's a saying in tamil: "குரு பார்க்கின் கோடி நன்மை - கோடி புண்ணியம்," which translates to "The aspect of Guru brings countless benefits and merits."

This significant planet is believed to reside in sacred places, temples, courts of law, educational institutions, banks, treasuries, and locations with high financial circulation. Guru is revered for bestowing blessings of spiritual wealth (Arutselvam), material wealth (Porutselvam), and the gift of children (Mazhalai Selvam), making it an exceptionally auspicious planet.

For an individual's zodiac sign (Rashi), the influence (Balam) of Guru becomes favourable when it transits to the 2nd, 5th, 7th, 9th, or 11th houses. This "Guru Balam" is essential for all auspicious events, particularly marriage.

The transit of this planet from one zodiac sign to the next takes approximately one year. This transition is what we refer to as "Guru Peyarchi."

The predictions associated with this "Guru Peyarchi" are general in nature.

For those who devotedly worship and seek Guru's blessings, the planet bestows favourable circumstances for acquiring wealth (Dhanayog), a prosperous life, mental happiness, the opportunity to own a home, auspicious events, marital bliss, progeny, high positions, abundant wealth, influence, social status, and noble virtues such as humility, compassion, honesty, justice, righteousness (Dharma), truthfulness (Satyam), generosity, and spiritual inclination.

Currently, Guru is transiting to the Gemini (Mithuna) zodiac sign. Gemini is considered an enemy house for Guru. It's important to remember that this transit may tamper the positive influences typically associated with Guru.

It's crucial to understand that the predominant effects in an individual's horoscope are determined by the prevailing Dasa (major planetary period) and Bhukti (minor planetary period). The effects of the Guru Peyarchi will primarily serve to support the existing positive or negative influences within a person's birth chart.

Gemini (Mithunam): (Mrigashirsha - 3rd, 4th Padas, Ardra, Punarvasu - 1st, 2nd, 3rd Padas)

Under the Gemini zodiac sign, Jupiter (Guru Bhagavan) transit into your ascendant marks a period known as "Janma Guru." While this placement isn't traditionally viewed as highly beneficial, it does offer a degree of respite from the challenges posed by Jupiter's recent sojourn in your 12th house, which likely brought about considerable unwarranted issues, expenditures, and losses.

The 1st house in your natal chart governs your physical being, material well-being, health, happiness, and personal development. This transit suggests an interplay of both positive and negative influences in these areas of your life.

Be prepared for potential disappointments arising from unmet expectations. You might experience a dip in self-assurance and find decision-making more challenging.

There's also a possibility of facing penalties or fines arising from certain issues, and you might find yourself in a situation where you have to pay high interest on borrowed money. Feelings of inertia, trouble sleeping, and a sense of isolation are possible. Furthermore, you may struggle to effectively manage challenges and opposition that arise.

There is a risk of losing valuable items through theft or fraudulent activities. Any investments made during this period are likely to result in losses. Your reputation may be sullied, and your self-esteem could be affected. Misunderstandings, disagreements, and unnecessary conflicts with family members may occur from time to time. It is advisable to exercise patience and maintain control over your temper.

In your professional life, you might experience difficulties with colleagues, and your earnings may not adequately reflect your efforts. For those who are self-employed, it is recommended to avoid making new investments. Treating employees with kindness is crucial, as there is a potential for financial losses and legal entanglements.

However, for those currently working abroad, the adverse effects may be less pronounced. Individuals who are considering relocating overseas for work or studies may find new opportunities emerging. This period could also provide opportunities to uncover latent talents and gain deeper insights. Engaging in practices such as meditation, yoga, and spiritual pursuits is likely to be highly beneficial during this time.

Overall, Jupiter's placement in the 12th house typically brings about various forms of expenditure, some of which may be for auspicious purposes, but a significant portion is likely to be unproductive spending.

The 10th house signifies work, profession, income, social status, recognition, and administrative abilities. Jupiter's transit into this house may negatively impact all the aforementioned aspects.

Expect quarrels, unnecessary animosity, and persistent problems in various aspects of life. Some individuals may encounter troublesome legal entanglements leading to unnecessary distress. Exercise extreme caution in your speech and communication.

Travel may be fraught with difficulties. It is advisable to avoid unnecessary journeys. If travel is unavoidable, take extra care of your belongings and your health.

Your mind may remain troubled and confused. Friends and relatives may turn hostile. Your self-respect could be damaged, leading to humiliation; it is best to remain secluded.

Illnesses may become prevalent in the family, leading to increased medical expenses. Pay close attention to your diet.

Whatever your endeavours, obstacles or delays are likely to occur. Completing any task easily will be challenging, requiring hard work, which may lead to mental stress.

For those employed, expect to work diligently while potentially facing demotion, increased workload, or undesirable transfers. For business owners, competition may intensify, or anticipated profits may not materialise. Financial pressures may arise. Exercise caution with investments, and be prepared for unexpected expenses. Avoid lending or borrowing large sums of money from anyone.

Diligence, honesty, and devotion to God will offer support during this period!

Sagittarius (Dhanus): (Moola, Purva Ashadha, Uttara Ashadha – 1st Pada)

For those who born under the Sagittarius (Dhanus) zodiac sign, Jupiter (Guru Bhagavan) is transiting to the 7th house of your zodiac. This is considered a highly auspicious placement, signifying a period of "Guru Balam."

Respect and fame in society will increase. A sense of stability and interest will develop in life. Your standard of living will improve. Opportunities to acquire houses, land, and property will arise.

As Jupiter is the ruling planet of your own zodiac sign, this period will lay the foundation for the fulfillment of your deepest dreams and ambitions.

Capricorn (Makaram): (Uttara Ashadha - 2nd, 3rd, 4th Padas, Shravana, Dhanishta - 1st, 2nd Padas)

For individuals born under the Capricorn (Makaram) zodiac sign, Jupiter (Guru Bhagavan) is transiting to the 6th house of your zodiac. This placement is generally not considered favourable. The 6th house represents all the challenges and difficulties we encounter.

According to Vedic astrology, the 6th house signifies ailments, enemies, hostility, debts, conflicts, opposition, troubles caused by adversaries, and undesirable, inauspicious outcomes such as legal issues. Money will not remain in your hands, income will decrease, savings will deplete, and financial problems will become overwhelming. Reduce your expenses.

Extreme care is required regarding your physical health. It is advisable to consult a doctor for regular check-ups and maintain a disciplined approach to your dietary habits.

Those who are employed will not face any significant problems in their work, but interest in their tasks may wane, and they may not receive a good reputation from superiors. Excessive workload can lead to physical and mental fatigue.

Those in business should avoid engaging in new ventures. Taking on loans is strictly inadvisable. Safeguard your assets and investments from losses. The burden of debt and interest may increase. Hard work and complete focus on your business are essential.

Humiliation due to debt, complications in transactions, and consequent bitterness may arise. Your antagonistic behaviour may lead to animosity from everyone around you.

Those pursuing education need to focus intently on their studies, as negative friendships can cause distractions and damage their reputation.

A sense of fear, sadness, and worry may arise in your mind. However, with the inherent fighting spirit of Capricorn individuals, you may be able to cope and emerge victorious.

During this year, patience, tolerance, self-control, and measured actions are of utmost importance.

Aquarius (Kumbam): (Dhanishta - 3rd, 4th Padas, Shatabhisha, Purva Bhadrapada - 1st, 2nd, 3rd Padas)

For individuals born under the Aquarius (Kumbam) zodiac sign, Jupiter (Guru Bhagavan) is transiting to the 5th house of your zodiac. This is considered a highly auspicious placement, signifying a period of "Guru Balam."

It is said that even if one begs, the blessings of Jupiter in the 5th house are rare. This transit will bring unexpected benefits and the grace of your family deity.

For those of you who have been struggling through the past 5 years of the challenging 7 ½ year Saturn cycle (Sade Sati and Janma Sani), this Jupiter transit will bring considerable relief. The hardships, sorrows, worries, and problems of the past will gradually lessen.

Long-delayed marriages will materialise, and couples facing delays in conceiving will now be blessed with children. Your aspirations will be fulfilled. This is an excellent period for students. Your unique talents will shine, and you will have opportunities to succeed in competitive exams and achieve good grades.

As Jupiter aspects the 11th house (house of gains), wealth will accumulate in various ways. You will acquire clothes, gold ornaments, and luxurious items.

Opportunities to buy or build a new house and move in will arise. You may also have the chance to purchase the high-end vehicle you desire.

Happiness will abound in the family. Unexpected good fortune will knock on your door. Everything you do will deliver positive results.

Those in employment will receive favourable outcomes such as salary increases, promotions, appreciation, and recognition.

This transit will bring significant progress for those who are self-employed. For those in the fields of art, literature, cinema, and music, this is a prosperous period.

Opportunities to earn unexpected profits from the stock market, land, or other investments are likely. Sudden wealth may come your way.

Opportunities will seek out those who are eager to progress in life.

Joyful moments, happy events, exhilaration, comforts, and pleasant leisure activities will fill your heart with delight.

Pisces (Meenam): (Purva Bhadrapada - 4th Pada, Uttara Bhadrapada, Revati)

For individuals born under the Pisces (Meenam) zodiac sign, Jupiter (Guru Bhagavan) is transiting to the 4th house of your zodiac. This is a slightly better placement compared to the previous year. For those currently navigating the 7 ½ year Saturn cycle (Sade Sati) with Saturn in the 12th house (Viraya Sani), this Jupiter transit will offer some solace. This Guru Peyarchi will bring a mix of both positive and negative influences. The sorrows and worries of the past will somewhat diminish.

The 4th house is known as the "Sukha Sthana" (house of comfort), representing the mother, home, vehicle, higher education, property, comfort, happiness, domestic conveniences, and peace of mind.

Your mother's health may be affected, or discord may arise with mother or maternal relatives.

Vehicles may experience frequent breakdowns leading to unnecessary expenses, although opportunities to purchase a new vehicle may arise. Household appliances may frequently malfunction, causing expenses. Domestic unrest and a loss of peace may occur. Disagreements within the family are possible.

Efforts to acquire property may face delays or obstacles, potentially leading some to withdraw from such plans. However, unexpected property issues may also find resolution.

Circumstances may arise leading to a change of residence – some individuals may have to relocate from their hometown for work or professional reasons.

For some, efforts towards higher education may conclude favourably but with delays. Some may have to travel to distant places for their studies.

As Jupiter aspects the 10th house, high positions, career growth, and favourable job changes may occur for some, potentially bringing success in business. While income and financial issues may not be severe, a lack of inner strength and stability may persist.

Mental stress may increase, accompanied by the anguish of not receiving due recognition for your efforts, leading to a longing for positive change.
